

CURRICULUM VITAE
(SUMMARY)

José Luís Lopes da Mota

Deputy Prosecutor General.

Portuguese National Member of Eurojust.

1979: Joined to the Public Prosecution Service.

1979-1988: Public Prosecutor at 1st Instance Courts

1985-1988: Supervision of professional training for prosecutors

1988-1996: Assistant of the Prosecutor General and of the Legal Adviser Council of the Attorney General's Office

1992-1996: Lecturer at the Centre for Judicial Studies (Portuguese Training School for Prosecutors and Judges)

1996-1999: Deputy Minister of Justice (regularly attending the EU JHA Council of Ministers)

1999-2001: Administrative Director of the Prosecutor General's Office; Secretary of the Adviser Council of the Attorney General's Office and Secretary of the Public Prosecution Service Management Council

2001-2002: Portuguese National Member of Pro-Eurojust (Brussels)

2002-2007: Portuguese National Member of Eurojust (Brussels and The Hague)

Chairperson of the Eurojust Team "Data Protection & EPOC*"

Member of the Eurojust "OLAF Team".

As Deputy Minister of Justice: drafting direction of the new Portuguese legislation in penal matters and related issues, inter alia, Procedural Penal Code, judicial cooperation in criminal matters, Public Prosecution Service, cheques rules, protection of witnesses, electronic surveillance, rights and procedures regarding protection of individuals suffering from mental illness, AIDS sufferers in detention, forensic medicine.

Author of scientific articles and studies mainly focused on penal and procedural penal law, European penal law and judicial cooperation in criminal matters, published in Portugal, Brazil, United Kingdom [Police and Judicial Co-operation in the European Union, Anthony Moore (ed.), Portuguese Report (together with Prof. Anabela Miranda Rodrigues), Cambridge University Press, 2004] and The Netherlands ("Eurojust and the European Arrest Warrant", together with Roelof Jan Manschot, in Handbook on the European Arrest Warrant, T.M.C. Asser Press, The Hague, 2004).

Together with Prof. Anabela Miranda Rodrigues, has published the book "Para uma Política Criminal Europeia – Quadro e instrumentos jurídicos da cooperação judiciária em matéria penal no espaço da União Europeia" (Towards an European Criminal Politics – Framework and legal instruments for judicial cooperation in the European Union area), Coimbra, 2002.

Together with Prof. Ángeles Gutierrez Zaraza and Agustín Azparren Lucas has published the book "El Espacio Judicial Europeo. Cooperación Civil Y Penal. Código de normas" (bilingual edition: Spanish and English, funded by AGIS Program), Colex, Madrid, 2004.

Numerous communications in meetings and seminars mostly focused on judicial cooperation and criminal matters, in different fora in Portugal and abroad (e.g. Madrid, Santander, Toledo, Mallorca, Marbella, Roma, Naples, Thessalonica, Paris, Bordeaux, Brussels, Luxembourg, Dublin, Montreal, New York, Brasília, S. Paulo, Cape Vert, Macao, Berlin, Bonn, Bratislava, Budapest and Santiago-Chile).